FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Jan. 22, 2024

The application period has begun for 19 college scholarships offered through North Valley Community Foundation.

Applications for and details about each scholarship can be viewed at www.nvcf.org/scholarships. The deadline to apply for most scholarships is April 19.

The majority of the scholarships at NVCF are for graduating seniors who will be attending college in the fall, but there are some for current college students.

Students from any high school in Butte, Glenn, Tehama, Colusa and Plumas counties can enter their school to see which scholarships they are eligible for.

Scholarships open for applications through NVCF include Altacal Audubon Elizabeth I. Brown Scholarship, BCOE Don Reighley Memorial Scholarship, Bridging the Gap for Breast Cancer Scholarship, Carrie Holiman Memorial Scholarship, Cindy Kennedy Memorial Scholarship, Ethan McCoy Memorial Scholarship, Harold Williams Scholarship, Jerry Novotny Journalism Scholarship, Mack Johnston Memorial Scholarship, Molly Sacksteder Memorial Scholarship, Mo-Train Spirit Award, Red Bluff Alums for Justice Scholarship, David Fleming Memorial Scholarship, George and Alice Smith Scholarship, Lydia Schulerud Scholarship, Matt Schneider Memorial Scholarship, Susan E. Williams Scholarship, Women's Improvement Club of Paradise Scholarship and Thomas Sprys Scholarship.
