FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: Jan. 19, 2022

The application period has begun for nearly 20 college scholarships offered through North Valley Community Foundation.

Applications to the 17 scholarships managed by NVCF and details about each scholarship can be viewed at www.nvcf.org/scholarships. The deadline to apply for most scholarships is April 15.

There are also links to three other scholarship programs offered by NVCF funds that have a separate application process.

The majority of the scholarships at NVCF are for graduating seniors who will be attending college in the fall, but there are some for current college students.

Students from any high school in Butte, Glenn or Tehama County can enter their school to see which scholarships they are eligible for.

Scholarships open for applications through NVCF include Altacal Audubon Elizabeth I. Brown Scholarship, Bridging the Gap for Breast Cancer Scholarship, Butte County Sustainable Communities Scholarship, Carrie Holiman Memorial Scholarship, Cindy Kennedy Memorial Scholarship, Ethan McCoy Memorial Scholarship, Harold Williams Scholarship, Jerry Novotny Journalism Scholarship, Molly Sacksteder Memorial Scholarship, Mo-Train Spirit Award, Red Bluff Alums for Justice Scholarship, George and Alice Smith Scholarship, Lydia Schulerud Scholarship, Susan E. Williams Scholarship, Women's Improvement Club of Paradise Scholarship, Thomas Sprys Scholarship and Vietnam Veterans of America Chapter 582 Scholarship.
